Remote Access to E-Resources

Respected teachers,

I hope that you are all keeping well while staying home and staying safe. It is informed that due to COVID-19 the HP University Central library has been closed. But University library has talked with informatics which is ready to provide free remote assessing to its journal and books for one month. Please use the link given below to assess the journal and books. Also share the link with your students. The online web link along with user id and password is given below.
