Technical Debate Competition

The Technical Club, Department of Data Science & Artificial Intelligence, Himachal Pradesh University, is organizing a Technical Debate Competition to encourage students to develop their critical thinking, technical knowledge, communication skills, and ability to present logical arguments.

All interested students of Technical Club are invited to participate in the competition.

Date: 25 September 2026

Venue: Department of Data Science & Artificial Intelligence, H.P. University, Shimla

Time: 11am at Lecture Hall 7

Theme: "Can Artificial Intelligence Replace Human Intelligence?"

Students are encouraged to participate actively and present their views with appropriate facts, examples, and logical arguments.

Guidelines

1. The competition is open to students of the Department.
2. Participants will be given an opportunity to speak for or against the motion.
3. Arguments should be relevant to the topic and supported by logical reasoning and examples.
4. Participants are expected to maintain decorum and respect opposing viewpoints.
5. The decision of the judges will be final.

All students are encouraged to participate and make the event a meaningful platform for technical discussion and exchange of ideas.
