

Indian Journal
of Australian Studies

Volume 2

Special Issue
on
NATION AND PLURALISM

I J A S

Centre for Australian and New Zealand Studies
Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla

2009

IJAS is an interdisciplinary journal published annually by the Centre for Australian and New Zealand Studies, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla (under UGC Area Study Programme).

ISSN: 2229-7863

Editor

PANKAJ K. SINGH

Published by

Centre for Australian and New Zealand Studies
Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla 171 005 India

Printed at

New Era Graphics
Shimla 171 002 India

Annual Subscription

Institution: Rs. 200/- Aus $ 20 US $ 15

Individual: Rs. 150/- Aus $ 15 US $ 10

Bank Drafts should be in the name of Centre for Australian and New Zealand Studies, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla.

CONTENTS

From the Editor	5
Pluralism and Australian Literary Culture Bruce Bennett	7
Voices from the Invisible: The Use of Oral History to De-marginalise a Hidden People Robyn Friend	21
Indian Immigrants and their Experiences in Australia: A Historical Overview Y. Yagama Reddy	33
“Fiction Humanizes History” Kirsty Murray on Writing Australian History and Multiculturalism Kirsty Murray in conversation with Pankaj K Singh	47
Mapping Australia and India Santosh K. Sareen	56
Being Dark in a White Country: Australia’s Troubled Pluralism Ipsita Sengupta	70
Woman as the Subaltern: Georgie in Tim Winton’s Dirt Music Ajay Khurana	82
Performing the Historical, Becoming the Other: David Unaipon’s Poetics of Subversion in Gool Lun Naga Debasish Lahiri	93

Negotiating Difference: Possibilities and Problems of Reconciliation in The Keepers	109
Subhash Verma

BOOK REVIEWS

Withered Hopes and Blossoming Dreams	119
A Review of Contemporary Indigenous Plays
Girija Sharma
Multiculturalism: Teaching them Young	125
A Review of Kirsty Murray's The Red Camel
Pankaj K. Singh

Contributors	128
---------------------	------------